MR. J. C. CABLISH

Announces As Candidate For Councilman From the Third Ward.

The Ledger is authorized to announce Mr. J. C. Cablish as candidate for Councilman from the Third Ward. Mr. Cablish is well known as a successful business man, having been in the grocery business for a number of years on East Third street, and has a host of friends who are proud of his success.

"Jack," as he is familiarly called, will make a good Councilman, as he has all the necessary qualifications that go in the make-up of a "city dad."

We commend him to the voters of the Third Ward.

He stands for an honest and efficient administration of city affairs, to the interest of the entire city, and believes the whole of Maysville should progress.

COLONELS SHOULD SIGN HIM UP.

Many persons who saw the game between the Cowan Regulars and the White Sox, of this city, at League Park Sunday, in which Shepard, the star pitcher of the Cowan team, performed, are of the opinion that the management of the Maysville Colonels, of the Ohio State League, would make no mistake by signing him up as a pitcher for the Colonels next season. In the game Sunday Shepard struck out fourteen of the hard-hitting White Sox and allowed them but eight hits, several of which were of the puny order. In the game against the Sox several weeks ago he whiffed nineteen of the hitters of Manager Ishmael. A pitcher that can do this is deserving of a trial. Then too, he can hit them far and often, as the box score of the game Sunday will show.

RUNAWAY BOY FOUND.

Porter Blythe, aged 15, who left home Friday afternoon because he was chastised for "playing hooky" from school, was located Saturday at Germantown, where he was visiting friends. His absence from home worried his parents very much and they were overjoyed at the news of him being found.

Mr. S. A. Shanklin, of the county, is a business visitor in Cincinnati.

Mr. Thomas Wallace, of Cincinnati, is visiting in this city.

A GREAT REDUCTION

In going over our stock we find that we are OVERLOADED, and have decided to REDUCE STOCK, and it goes at cost.

This space will not permit us to list it all. One great bargain is 100,000 feet of an EXCELLENT GRADE OF OAK SIDING. This goes at $2 PER HUNDRED. All other yard stock greatly reduced.

Don't miss this opportunity to get what you want in lumber and building material at the lowest prices ever known in Maysville. Terms at this reduced price are CASH.

How To Avoid The Motor Car That Bags At the Knees

The automobile is curiously like the human body—an assembling of independent parts.

The man-machine is made up of muscle and bone, nerve and blood, water and fat, waste matter and brains.

As far as locomotion is concerned, neither machine is any stronger than its weakest "link."

Mark the badly co-ordinated man. He looks O. K., but when there are stairs to climb or pace to be forced, he puffs and pants, and one concludes that his ruddy color came from a recent facial massage; that his bellows need mending, that his muscles aren't; that his "strength" is mere scenery and that his sound appearance is mostly tailor made.

Haven't you seen automobiles just like that, look "pretty" but won't take you from Here to There and Back?

The "Wonder Car" that the Square Deal Man sells won't "bag at the knees," and he can prove by the testimony of delighted owners that it will take you There and Back, not once, but many times, and that it is the lowest "After Cost" car on the market today. If you are a prospective car owner, phone us and we will be glad to take you for a trial spin in the Maxwell "25."

FAVORS LARGE NAVY

Senator Lee S. Overman, chairman of the senate rules committee and one of the administration's leaders in the senate, has announced himself as a supporter of a program for military preparedness. The senator called at the White House a few days ago and after his call announced his position on the matter. "I am for a large navy for the United States and I am heartily in favor of legislation that will make our coast defenses strong enough to ward off all kinds of attacks from the sea," said he. This picture shows Senator Overman leaving the White House executive offices.

SEVERAL MORE TO WITHDRAW.

As the time of the election draws nearer, rumors of several more of the candidates withdrawing are in the air. Several of the nine aspirants in the Sixth Ward are about ready to throw up the sponge, while several of the other wards will have withdrawals.

ATTENTION MINSTREL MEN AND ELKS.

All Elks and others who have been asked to take part in the Elks' Minstrel show are urged to be at the Elks' Home this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

TO BE BURIED IN THIS COUNTY.

The remains of Mrs. Ardella Hull, who died at Indianapolis, Friday, will arrive in this city Tuesday on C. & O. train No. 2, and will be taken to the cemetery at Rectortown for burial.

SENSIBLE TALK

Regarding the New Addition in East Maysville—An Article Worth the Reading.

LET'S BOOST MAYSVILLE—STOP KNOCKING.

Editor Public Ledger:

It seems that there has been quite a commotion created by reason of the proposition presented to Council a few same time they expect the city and the community as a whole to be benefited thereby, and only ask that they be given the same treatment that has been accorded to others, and it is blind business policy on the part of the city not to have done so, as it will find out when it is too late.

The lot sale will be held as advertised, regardless of the jealous sentiments of the knockers, and those who purchase lots in this section will not have reason to regret their investment.

WEST BROS. REALTY CO.

DON'T FORGET TO BOOST MAYSVILLE!

Attend the AUCTION LOT SALE on TUESDAY, OCTOBER 19, at 10 A. M. sharp; Forest Avenue and Second Street Addition—Ball Park. Free Prizes and Good Music.

nights ago by the owners of a new street running through their property from Second street to Forest avenue, and a good deal of misconception created by the local agitators who are chronically opposed to everything and everybody. There is nothing unusual, unfair or illegal about this proposition.

There is not a street in the city of Maysville that was not constructed by the city at its own expense except the new permanent streets that were built during the last few years under special assessment. Every street in the city of Maysville was originally constructed by the city and at its expense, and in some cases not only were the streets constructed, but the land upon which they were laid was purchased at a considerable cost. Every person who has any knowledge whatever of the city affairs knows this to be true and it has been only a few years since the city itself offered to pay something like $800 for the land for a street to connect Second street and Forest avenue, through this same property besides the cost of constructing the street.

That this street is badly needed in this section of the city is beyond question; otherwise, why would the city, a few years ago, offer the price which it did? Evidently with the view that if the street were opened up through this property the lots would then become available for building purposes, and a small pittance of taxes, which the city was then receiving as a acreage proposition, would have been increased manifold by reason of dividing the land into lots and the natural improvements which would come through such a division. Every citizen of Maysville that knows anything at all, remembers a few years ago when the block upon which the tobacco plants are now located was an old abandoned slough, and paid to the city an annual tax of less than $10 per year. This question was agitated when the bond issue for the construction of the sewer in that end of town was up, and that particular block, which then paid to the city an annual revenue of less than $10 per year, is now directly and indirectly paying to the city an annual revenue of from $4,000 to $6,000 in taxes, not to speak of the general benefit which came to the whole East End by reason of the construction of the sewer, which cost $12,000.

The cost of the construction of the street asked for in the present matter would not, at the outside, exceed $1,200 to $1,500. This property is at present paying an annual tax of some $40 to the city. With the opening up and sale of the lots in this section it is hard to conceive how the annual tax revenue from it in the future will be less than $300 to $500 per year, and in all probability many times this. Would it not be business for the city to expend $1,200 to $1,500 in order that it would get an annual tax, which might be termed a perpetual annuity of probably $500 to $1,500 per year, and more as time goes on?

It looks humorous for any one to talk about enjoining the city in a case like this and the idea of the editor of a local paper, which should promote the interest of the city, swelling up like a poisoned pup and rearing upon his hind legs and bawling about enjoining a proposition of this kind, is ludicrous. The very reason that Maysville is still a village, is because the public is still burdened with just such parasites as this. Every person knows how cities are built. Unoccupied area is divided into lots and opened to the public by promoters and through the disposition of the city to make the necessary public improvements and the foresight of the owners of the property, new squares and blocks are added to the city and built up and made beautiful and productive.

Perhaps the public should know that the sidewalks for this critical newspaper man were constructed at an expense to the city, although it was on a public street which had been constructed and in use for more than fifty years.

The owners of this property were willing to donate the land for this street for which the city a few years ago was willing to pay $800, and take the burden of the construction of the street, but now because of agitators and demagogues with ten-cent heads and a disposition to envy any one who may be about to make an improvement, will raise all sorts of row if the City Council would be as liberal in this proposition as they have universally been since the founding of the city.

This is strictly a business proposition. While the promoters of the proposition went into it and expended their money with the expectation of making a legitimate profit, yet

WHITE SOX WIN

Take Third and Final Game From Cowan By the Close Score of 5 To 4, in An Exciting Game Sunday Afternoon at League Park.

Before about 300 fans on Sunday, Manager Ishmael's White Sox took the third and final game of their series with the fast Cowan Regulars by the score of 5 to 4. The game was full of features, of which the star twirling of Shepard, the big pitcher of the visitors, was the headline. He struck out fourteen of the Maysville hitters. "Straight" Wilson, the speedy center gardener of the Sox, was the leading man for the locals, getting seven putouts and two hits, one of which was a three-station swat to the score-board.

By winning this game, the Sox claim the championship of this section, as they have defeated the Cowan aggregation two out of three games, and Cowan has cleaned up on all the leading teams of this vicinity.

This game wound up the season for the Sox, being one of the most successful ever enjoyed by this team since its organization several years ago. The Sox have already laid plans for a stronger team for next season and promise the fans of this city the same high-class ball they have been exhibiting for seasons past.

WANTS DIVORCE PAPERS.

Saturday, in the office of Circuit Clerk James B. Key, through her attorneys, Retta Collins filed papers for a divorce from James E. Collins. The petition states that they were married November 24, 1900, and lived as man and wife until September 25, 1915, when the house in which they were living, on the farm of Reese Clark, in the county, burned down and the defendant left without provocation. The petition claims that to the union four children were born, Mary, aged 14; Ethel, 10; Tina, 9, and Edwin, 6. Since the time of the fire the plaintiff has been living with her sister in this city, while the defendant has been working on the farm of Reese Clark, in the county, earning $22 a month and board. The plaintiff asks that she be allowed $15 a month alimony for the support of the children and all proper relief.

QUITE PROMISING

Is the Tobacco Outlook For Mason County This Year.

While the rainy season the last summer was on, a farmer told the writer that he wouldn't give 30 cents for this year's tobacco crop of Mason county. Wonder what he would be willing to give for the crop that is now curling up so nicely in the hundreds of barns throughout this county?

From reliable sources the crop of this most wonderful weed this season will not only be a large one, but will be one of the best in quality produced in years.

With all the reports from adjacent counties in hands, the tobacco warehousemen of this city are getting things shaped up whereby they will be better able to handle all that comes to this market than they have ever been before.

Maysville's market last year was the best and strongest in this section of the country, the highest prices being paid at the warehouses, of any point in Kentucky, this being testified to by sellers who took loads to several other markets, and when they came here with what they had left they found prices way above other markets, and it is a safe bet that they will market their entire crops here this season.

With seven warehouses, each of which capable of handling all that may be brought to it, with capable managers and sorters, with men at the head of them who are practical farmers and business men, the growers of this section have found that the Maysville warehouses are working only to the interest of the producer, in that he may receive the highest price possible for his offerings.

With the increased business on account of several of the warehouses closing in neighboring towns, the houses here are expecting the biggest business of their history, and are planning to have the heaviest buyers on the Maysville market.

WORK ON ROAD PROGRESSING NICELY.

LOT SALE TUESDAY

New Forest Avenue and Second Street Addition To Be Opened By the West Realty Company—Valuable Prizes To Be Given Away.

Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock sharp, the auctioneer will start to sell the lots of the new addition which is being opened up by the West Bros. Realty Company, on the site of the old ball park.

The site has been platted into ninety lots, all of which are very desirable, each being situated on a street and having several modern improvements. The addition promises to be one of the best moves ever made for the progress of Maysville, and we predict the rapid sale of all the lots, as they are the last available lots for sale in this city.

All during the day valuable prizes will be given away, including $50 in gold coins. The Maysville Brass Band will furnish the music for the occasion—enough to warrant a good crowd. All preparations for a big sale have been made and the promoters look for the largest crowd that ever attended a lot sale in Maysville.

DAM WORK GOING ON NICELY.

Work on Lock and Dam No. 33, above this city, is being rushed, in spite of the time lost by the high water, which booded the cofferdam four times this season. The work is commencing to come up to the schedule set by the contractors and if there are no more delays, the work promised for this season will be finished.

Coming Tuesday, October 19, Charlotte Walker in a Picturization of "Kindling"

Read the Following Synopsis of This Great Picture

"KINDLING," which scored a tremendous hit when first produced on Broadway and throughout America, is a play with an immense human theme—the right of honorable beings, industrious and sober, to live under such conditions that they can bring children into the world and give them a fair chance in life. Though the subject is especially plain-spoken, so to speak, the author, Mr. Charles Kenyon, handles it with that simplicity which dignifies it and makes it eternal drama.

The heroine of "Kindling" is a woman of the tenements, about to become a mother, who is afraid to admit the coming event to her husband because she knows that he thinks it wrong to bring children into a life of poverty and squalor. In her attempt to solve a problem which is too big for her she steals from the rich woman who owns the wretched building in which she has been condemned to dwell. When the day of reckoning comes she finds that her husband is really worthy of her and he tries to shield her from all blame.

The events which lead to the happy conclusion of this wonderful drama, and the departure of husband and wife for the Far West, are of most compelling interest.

"KINDLING" is a theme drama of the finest order. It has been produced by Cecil B. De Mille and is a positive masterpiece.

ON THE TRAIL OF THE CAT

Pussy's Bird-Killing Proclivities Being Investigated by the Audubon Societies.

New York.—Things look dark for the cat! The charge is that prowling felines destroy 5,000,000 birds a year. Whether this is true or not is to be decided by an impartial investigation of pussy's bird-killing proclivities, conducted by the National Association of Audubon Societies of New York. The people of the United States are to be the jury. T. Gilbert Pearson, secretary of the Audubon societies, has just sent out an invitation to the general public to forward to his office "any evidence they may have bearing on the subject, either for or against cats as destroyers of birds." "We want the truth," said Pearson.

The town of Montclair, New Jersey, has just passed the first cat-tagging ordinance in America. It provided that all untaxed cats are to be regarded as "vagrants" and are to be proceeded against accordingly.

Spokane, Washington, is on the point of passing a cat license ordinance. An unnamed man in New England is quietly collecting evidence against bird-killing cats for the Audubon societies. Secretary Pearson says the case against the cat is only in an investigative stage and that his association will not act until the evidence is complete. He intimates, however, the evidence against pussy is piling up tremendously.

WARE FRISCO HORSE DEALS!

Man Who Bought Dying Mare at City Sale Now Wants Money Back.

San Francisco.—David Harum had nothing on the city of San Francisco in a horse deal, at least so thinks Joseph M. McKevitt.

The following letter was received from McKevitt by Mayor Ralph: "Dear Mr. Mayor: At a recent municipal auction of horses I purchased from the city one gray mare—price $15. I paid three dollars to have the horse shod. In the street Superintendent Sweeney of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals told me the horse was in such condition it must be destroyed. I sent the horse to a chicken rancher. The latter has not been returned. I ask that I be reimbursed the $18 I spent. Kindly give this matter your attention."

HUNTS FOR BIG GAME AT 99

"I Don't Take Water From Any of These Young Fellows," Says Spry Veteran.

Portland, Ore.—Jeremiah Paulsell, ninety-nine years old, has taken out a license to hunt big game. He claimed a free license by reason of his being a Civil War veteran.

"I don't take water from any of these young fellows," said Mr. Paulsell.

He was born in Hamilton, Ind., October 10, 1816. He enlisted in the regular army in 1834 and saw service through the Mexican and Civil wars. He expects to go hunting alone.

The "Old Man" Won. Smith Centre, Kan.—At the recent Smith county fair a feature of the racing was the free-for-all farmers' trot. Three generations of the Holmes family were represented by entries. They were Bacon Holmes; his son, Clarence Holmes, and grandson, Dick Holmes. The two young men had a plot fixed up to pocket the prize money, but it failed when one of the horses broke. The elder Holmes took the race in straight heats.

Storm-Scared, Admits Fraud. ### THRICE IS HERO

OF PRISON CAMP

Story of the Deeds of Auguste the Little French Tailor.

NOW HE WANTS TO FIGHT

Three Times He Wrecks Plant Where Asphyxiating Gas Bombs Are Made and Twice Escapes to His Own Lines.

Paris.—It was in Nantes that I met this little man. I am going to tell you about him, and I think I will tell you the whole incident, just as it happened to me, so that you can see in what a queer, unexpected way one may run against a hero. I found him on the railroad in a French provincial town in the shape of an undersized tailor, slightly bald and forty-two years old.

Nantes is one of the twelve cities of France that have statues in the Place de la Concorde, in Paris. One passes through there on the way to and from the coast towns of southern Brittany and, having come from St. Nazaire, I was waiting in the Gare d'Orléans for the train to Paris. He came to me and, while I was waiting, he told me his story. He said that he was a Frenchman, and it was right for me to want to fight for France. She told me my wife to let me go. So I kissed my wife and children and came back to France.

"It was in June that I escaped, and they caught me just as I got to the Swiss border and started to take me back again. But I escaped once more and this time got here. It took me two months."

"Have you done enough?" I asked. "Do you want to fight now?" "Oh!" he cried, raising his clenched fists, "give me a gun and a bayonet in my hands!"

Fleming county has a bumper tobacco crop, both in quality and quantity. From our information there will be a very small per cent of houseburned tobacco and a good deal will be nice and bright.

Carlisle now has a new automobile hearse, but we haven't seen any mention in the papers over there of anybody falling over themselves for the first ride in it.

ONLY SIXTEEN, GIRL VERY SICK

Tells How She Was Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

New Orleans, La.—"I take pleasure in writing these lines to express my gratitude to you. I am only 16 years old and work in a tobacco factory. I have been a very sick girl but I have improved wonderfully since taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am now looking fine and feeling a thousand times better."

St. Clair, Pa.—"My mother was alarmed because I was troubled with suppression and had pains in my back and side, and severe headaches. I had pimples on my face, my complexion was sallow, my sleep was disturbed, I had nervous spells, was very tired and had no ambition. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has worked like a charm in my case and has regulated me. I worked in a mill among hundreds of girls and have recommended your medicine to many of them."

prisoners had to work in that factory.

"Did you work in it?" "I wrecked it three times," he replied. "It made 40,000 shells a week. The first time I damaged the furnace, and it took them four days to repair it. Then I spoiled the acid tanks and they ran for more than four weeks, making shells that were worthless before they found it out. The third time I wrecked the furnace again and it took three days to repair it. But then they began to suspect me, Monsieur. They watched me too closely. I could be of no more use there, and I drew a plan of the factory and escaped. It is for that plan that the government has given me fifteen days' leave before I join my regiment."

"Was it hard to get away?" "My wife did not want me to go. She was afraid they would capture me and shoot me."

"Your wife?" "Yes," he replied. "When I escaped from the camp I went to say good-by to my wife and children. My wife cried and begged me to go back and give myself up. She said I was sure to be captured and then I would be sent to fight for France. She told me my wife to let me go. So I kissed my wife and children and came back to France."

"It was in June that I escaped, and they caught me just as I got to the Swiss border and started to take me back again. But I escaped once more and this time got here. It took me two months."

"Have you done enough?" I asked. "Do you want to fight now?" "Oh!" he cried, raising his clenched fists, "give me a gun and a bayonet in my hands!"

Fleming county has a bumper tobacco crop, both in quality and quantity. From our information there will be a very small per cent of houseburned tobacco and a good deal will be nice and bright.

Carlisle now has a new automobile hearse, but we haven't seen any mention in the papers over there of anybody falling over themselves for the first ride in it.

Tells How She Was Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

New Orleans, La.—"I take pleasure in writing these lines to express my gratitude to you. I am only 16 years old and work in a tobacco factory. I have been a very sick girl but I have improved wonderfully since taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am now looking fine and feeling a thousand times better."

St. Clair, Pa.—"My mother was alarmed because I was troubled with suppression and had pains in my back and side, and severe headaches. I had pimples on my face, my complexion was sallow, my sleep was disturbed, I had nervous spells, was very tired and had no ambition. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has worked like a charm in my case and has regulated me. I worked in a mill among hundreds of girls and have recommended your medicine to many of them."

SMUT OF WHEAT IS PREVENTABLE DISEASE

Simple Apparatus for the Formalin Treatment Consisting of Trough, Tub and Sawhorse—A, Trough; B, Tub; C, Plug Pipe; D, Perforated Tin Plate.

Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.

Wheat growers in this country not infrequently experience serious losses caused by preventable diseases. Wheat is preyed upon by a number of parasitic fungi, three of which are classed as smuts. Two of these smuts are common pests in the wheatfields of North America, the other commonly known as flag smut, is thus far unknown to this continent, though it is fairly common in Australia and certain other parts of the world where wheat culture has been in progress for centuries, says the department of agriculture.

Of the two smuts, bunt or covered smut of wheat, sometimes referred to as stinking smut, is found wherever wheat is grown, sometimes resulting in losses to the farmers of the United States of $20,000,000 or more annually. Not infrequently fields planted to untreated seed and giving promise of yielding 30 to 40 bushels per acre of good wheat, will produce a crop of covered smut amounting, in some cases, to as much as 40 to 60 per cent of the crop.

This smut disease is caused by a parasitic fungus which attacks the growing wheat plant before the first leaf appears above ground. Once inside the attacked seedling it continues its growth and by the time the wheat begins to head the diseased plants produce a crop of smut. If we examine the heads of such a plant we find instead of normal wheat grains only a lot of smut balls. In other words, the materials produced by the living plant for the purpose of building up sound wheat grains have been consumed by the parasite in forming its masses of smut spores which finally occupy the exact position in the wheat heads that would have been filled by the kernels had they been allowed to develop. These smut balls consist of nothing but millions of spores inclosed in each case by a thin enveloping membrane.

When the smut balls are crushed the spores give off an odor not unlike that of nerving brine. The liberated spores become attached to the seed, which, if planted without previous treatment, may produce another crop of smutted wheat.

Treat Seed With Formalin.

Bunt or covered smut of wheat is one of the most easily prevented of any of the cereal diseases. The following procedure is recommended: Run all seed wheat through a fanning mill in order to blow out the unbroken bin.

The liquid may be thrown directly on the grain without injury, but better results will be secured by pouring it into shallow pans, scattered over the surface, or if these are not available, it may be poured upon old rags or cotton waste. One-half pound or at most not more than a pound, should be poured into each pan. The liquid may be poured down through a gas pipe in order to get it near the center and bottom of very large bins. Plug one end of the pipe with cotton or old rags, push it down through the grain and then remove the plug by pushing a rod down through the pipe.

The granary or bins should be kept closed as tightly as possible for 36 hours, and if the seed is not to be sowed, for 48 hours. The grain will be just as good for feed after treatment as before, but if it is to be sowed, care should be taken not to use too much bisulphide or to fumigate too long. It is often convenient to apply the liquid Saturday afternoon and fumigate until the next Monday morning.

The gas is very explosive and no lighted cigars, pipes, lanterns, or matches should be allowed in or near the building until it has been thoroughly aired. The work should always be done in the daytime. Cost may be kept down by securing commercial bisulphide instead of the more expensive chemically pure liquid, often kept by drug stores. Storekeepers will doubtless be glad to order the more economical form if it is not already in stock.

For directions in special cases, write to the College of Agriculture, Columbia, Mo. Be sure to state the size of the granary or bin to be fumigated.

Determine Value of Cow.

To determine the value of a cow it is necessary to measure her milk flow and also to test her milk for butterfat. A cow producing 40 pounds of 3 per cent milk and one producing 20 pounds of 6 per cent milk give equal amounts of butter.

Signs of Tuberculosis.

A cow that stays thin in spite of good feed and has a cough, shows pretty sure signs of tuberculosis. Let the veterinarian test her.

We had a strange and startling dream the other night. In imagination we saw every fellow walking up and squaring his subscription and paying a dollar in advance, and forthwith we were arranging to take up a large slice of that billion dollar loan, when an insect started to fox trot on our nasal protuberance and brought us back to the sweeter realities of life. Just why is a dream, anyway?

If it were not for the war, after all is said, we would be in a sorrier plight than we are. If Europeans were not so busy killing each other, they would be busy in their shops making goods with which to kill American industries. If the present tariff ever gets into full operation—we are now under the protective tariff created by the war—we shall soon know the difference. It is useless to say that the tariff as it now stands will serve the prosperity of this country. The time to modify the tariff is through the next election. When Europe gets on its feet again it will flood this country

A CONFESSION

Hopes Her Statement, Made Public, will Help Other Women.

Hines, Ala.—"I must confess," says Mrs. Eula Mae Reid, of this place, "that Cardui, the woman's tonic, has done me a great deal of good."

Before I commenced using Cardui, I would spit up everything I ate. I had a tired, sleepy feeling all the time, and was irregular. I could hardly get my feet around, and would have severe headaches continuously.

Since taking Cardui, I have entirely quit spitting up what I eat. Everything seems to digest right, and I have gained 10 pounds in weight."

If you are a victim of any of the numerous ills so common to your sex, it is wrong to suffer.

For half a century, Cardui has been relieving just such ills, as is proven by the thousands of letters, similar to the above, which pour into our office, year by year.

Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients which act specifically on the woman's constitution, and helps build the weakened organs back to health and strength.

Cardui has helped others, and will help you, too. Get a bottle today. You won't regret it. Your druggist sells it.

Tried It On the Dog!

In experiments with caffeine, the poisonous drug in coffee, the U. S. Government brought out some striking facts regarding the cumulative effects of this drug.

Ten full-grown dogs were given—along with their food—an average daily dose of caffeine equal to the quantity of that drug in about four cups of coffee.

The Dogs took the Drug Fifteen Days and—Died!

A single cup of coffee a day, or even four cups, isn't enough to kill a man—he's bigger and has more resistance. But, little by little, the cumulative effect of the poison works havoc, and sooner or later there'll come a day of reckoning.

Some of the signs that foretell the reckoning are headache, biliousness, neurasthenia, sleeplessness, heart flutter, and so on. Everybody can recognize the signs.

There's a way out! Quit coffee and use—

Instant Postum

America's Pure Food-Drink.

Made of prime wheat roasted with a bit of wholesome molasses, this delicious beverage contains no caffeine or any other harmful substance—just the goodness of the grain.

Postum comes in two forms: Postum Cereal, the original form, must be boiled, 15c and 25c packages. Instant Postum, soluble form, in the cup instantly, 30c and 50c tins. Both kinds are equally delicious, and cost per cup about the same.

Postum has won its way into thousands of homes where coffee once held sway.

The Rally Day at the Third Street M. E. church Sunday school was the best ever held in the school; 192 were present at the Sunday school service proper, while almost double that number were present to witness the beautiful exercises in the upper room. Why can it not be kept up Sunday after Sunday? It is a great thing to have such affairs. It shows a progressive, wide-awake spirit in the school. In the evening the annual harvest home service was held. The church was beautifully decorated with all the season's fruits and trimmings appropriate to the occasion. The pastor, Rev. J. M. Lital, preached an excellent peace sermon to a large audience.

Mr. Gragg, of Somerset, recently appointed vice president of the Kentucky Sunday School Union, was in the city last week, the guest of his father-in-law, the Rev. J. W. Simpson. While here he called upon several of the Sunday school workers.

Business in the Cincinnati and Memphis trade is picking up both ways, the shippers manifesting a healthy desire to give the boats an opportunity to show what they can do.

The City of Parkersburg, which towed the Rice & Dore water carnival barges, narrowly escaped being wrecked when she struck a bridge pier at Clinton, Ia., and was badly damaged.

Mrs. Cora Likens, of Henderson, Ky., attempted to walk on the water. Her faith was so great that she thought she could overcome the law of gravitation on the Ohio river. It was not from an apostle's bark, but from the gay and handsome excursion steamer John S. Hopkins, that she attempted to leap. Richard Muth, special officer on the boat, who does not believe in "sanctification," which Mrs. Likens said she possessed, grabbed the woman after she had expressed her determination to walk on the water and prevented her from jumping into the river. The woman was turned over to relatives.

Boyd county will soon furnish exercise to its county prisoners on a well-appointed stone pile, to be installed a short distance from the county prison, behind a twelve-foot oak fence.

WOMAN WEAK, RUN-DOWN

Finds Health In a Simple Tonic.

People in Maysville will begin to believe us when we say that our delicious Vinol is a wonderful tonic and strength creator.

Here is another case where it has proved its wonderful power to overcome weak, run-down, nervous, anemic conditions.

"I was run-down, nervous and could not do my work without being entirely exhausted, and would often faint without any apparent cause. The doctor said I was anemic, but failed to help me. My husband brought home a bottle of Vinol and I began to improve after taking one bottle, and after taking four bottles it has built me up so I can do all my housework without help. I recommended Vinol to a neighbor, who says her doctor approves of it and said 'Vinol is a wonderfully good tonic.' Mrs. Bessie Hering, West Philadelphia, Pa.

We recommend Vinol to our customers as the greatest strength creator we know—due to the extractive medicinal elements of fresh cod livers, without oil, combined with peptonate of iron and beef peptonate, all dissolved in a pure medicinal wine.

BETTER BE CAREFUL

Or the Game Warden Will Get You For Hunting Waterfowl Without License.

The open season for hunting waterfowl began October 1, according to a communication sent out by the government. The communication states that the fish and game laws will be strictly enforced. Deputy game wardens have been instructed to patrol the rivers, and if hunters do not have license they will be arrested and their guns, boats and dogs seized. The Ohio river is under jurisdiction of Kentucky officials. Hunters there must either have the residential license of $1, or non-residential license, which declares that hunters living outside the State must have a non-resident license to hunt upon the Ohio river, which is controlled by Kentucky. The river will be patrolled. Penalties are provided in fines of not less than $50, nor more than $200 and thirty days in jail if the laws are violated. Various State laws do not always conform to the Federal regulations, but in such cases the department will insist upon the observance of the government law. It is the desire of the Federal department to conform the regulations to the wishes of the majority of sportsmen, but at the same time give wild fowl the necessary protection. The government is sending out Federal inspectors to enforce the law, Congress having appropriated $50,000 for this purpose.

DEFECTIVE EYESIGHT

can be helped by properly fitted and adjusted glasses. If your eyes trouble you don't risk permanent injury by straining them.

To determine the exact needs of the eyes, and to adjust glasses accurately, requires special knowledge and long experience. THAT is why we urge you to come here and let us examine your eyes. We guarantee a perfect fitting if glasses are needed.

More For Your Money

Dollar for dollar, you will get more for your money in this 1916 Overland Model 83 than in any similar car.

The price is $750.

Never before has a car of this size—with such complete equipment—been offered by any manufacturer at less than $1050.

In fact, it is in many particulars the same Overland that last year was considered such big value at $1075.

It is a family car, complete in every detail, with refinements in appearance, comfort and convenience that distinguish it above other cars much higher in price.
